Act 44 Disclosure Form for Entities Providing Professional Services to the Borough of Carlisle Pension System

Responses by: Campbell Durrant Beatty Palombo & Miller, P.C. (CDBP&M)

REF – Question 1.
CDBP&M serves as labor counsel to the Requesting Municipality and provides professional legal services in accordance with a written agreement. CDBP&M has provided professional legal services in the past relating to Requesting Municipality's pension system. However, CDBP&M has not entered into a professional services contract with the Requesting Municipality's pension system since the effective date of Act 44. It is not possible to identify individuals who may in the future provide professional services to the Requesting Municipality's pension plan(s). As there are no professional services being provided to the pension plans at present, it is not possible to provide a description. Typically, professional legal services for a pension plan may include drafting or revising pension plan provisions or providing legal advice relative to the interpretation or implementation of particular pension plan provisions in relation to a particular set of facts, collective bargaining agreement or applicable law. Individuals who have provided or are most likely to provide legal services relating to pension issues are: Richard D. Miller and Brian P. Gabriel. This response will be updated, if warranted, in accordance with Act 44.

Act 44

REF – Question 7.
No.

REF – Question 8.
Not applicable. The question set forth in REF – Question 9 is taken from 53 P.S. § 895.704-A. This section applies to a person or affiliated entity that enters into a professional services contract with the Requesting Municipality's pension system. As set forth above, CDBP&M, has not entered into a professional services contract with the pension system during the relevant time period. See answer to REF – Question 1 for further details.

REF – Question 9.
Not applicable. The question set forth in REF – Question 9 is taken from 53 P.S. § 895.704-A. This section applies to contractors who have a professional services contract with the Requesting Municipality's pension system. As set forth above, CDBP&M, has not entered into a professional services contract with the pension system during the relevant time period. See answer to REF – Question 1 for further details.

REF – Question 10.
Not applicable. The questions set forth in REF – Question 10 are taken from 53 P.S. § 895.705-A(a). This section states that: "[t]he provisions of subsection (a) shall apply to a person and an affiliated entity that has applied for, submitted an offer or bid for, responded to a request for proposal or otherwise solicited a professional services contract with a municipal pension system." 53 P.S. § 895.705-A(c). The statute was effective December 17, 2009. Because neither CDBP&M, nor any of its employees have applied for, submitted an offer or bid for, responded to a request for professional services or otherwise solicited a professional services contract with the Requesting Municipality's pension plan during the relevant time period, 53 P.S. § 895.705-A(a) is not applicable. See answer to REF – Question 1 for further details.
